Miss Wheatley's Wedding to Take Place on Lawn.

MISS DOUELLA WOOD A BRIDE

Engagement Announced of Miss Bell to M. Gaston de Ramaix—Miss Klerman Engaged to Ensign McCracken—Wives of Army Officers Leave Fort Myer for Hot Springs.

One of the early weddings of the fall season will be that of Miss Mamie Wheatley, daughter of Mrs. Mary Wheatley, of Georgetown, and a member of one of the oldest families in the District, and Mr. L. W. Grooms, of this city, which will take place on September 18. This will be an al fresco affair, weather permitting, in the country place of the Wheatleys.

Miss Douella Wood, of this city, was married yesterday at noon to Mr. Samuel J. Hall. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John W. Smith, pastor of Epworth M. E. Church South, before a company composed of relatives only. After the ceremony, Mr. Hall and his bride left immediately for Atlantic City, where they will remain for a fortnight. Later on they will be at home in the Loretto apartment house in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell, of this city, have announced the engagement of their daughter Grace to M. Gaston de Ramaix, first secretary of the Belgian legation in Mexico. The wedding is expected to take place very shortly. Miss Bell and her parents, who are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell in their beautiful summer home, Belm Breagh, in Nova Scotia, remained very late in their country place in Woodley lane. Miss Bell and her fiancé met during the past winter while Miss Bell was visiting in Mexico. She has been a great traveler, having spent most of her summers and many winters in foreign lands. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. Bell. Miss Bell's sister, formerly Miss Helen Bell, was married a few years ago to Mr. Julian Ripley. There have been no greater favorites in Washington society than the Bell girls, and it is a matter of great regret that their marriages will remove both from their girlhood's home.

The marriage of Miss Cora Harrison, of Mitchellville, Prince George County, Md., to Mr. George P. King, of Fredericksburg, Va., will take place in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. H. P. Weaver, in Mitchellville, August 12.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Klerman, of Norfolk, have announced the engagement of their daughter Alice to Ensign John J. McCracken, U. S. N. The wedding is to take place in the early fall. The bridegroom-elect is a graduate of the Naval Academy and is now stationed at Seattle, Wash. He is a son of Capt. T. McCracken, of Fredericksburg, Va.

Capt. Adolf Marx, U. S. N., is spending a few days in Washington before joining Mrs. Marx and their children at West End, Long Branch, Capt. and Mrs. Marx accompanied the Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Strauss on their recent visit to Newport and the coast resorts, making the trip on the Mayflower, Capt. Marx being in command.

Mrs. J. Franklin Bell, wife of Gen. Bell; Mrs. Swift and Miss Swift, wife and daughter of Maj. Egan Swift, went from Fort Myer yesterday to the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, to be the guests of Mrs. and Miss Garlington, wife and daughter of Gen. Garlington, in their cottage there.

The marriage is announced of Miss Bertha Mac Mahoney to Mr. William W. Davis. The ceremony took place Tuesday evening in the home of the bride's parents, at 8 o'clock. Rev. E. H. Lamar officiating. The bride and bridegroom left immediately afterward for a trip to Niagara Falls and other Northern points, after which they will be at home in this city.

T. J. O'Brien, United States Ambassador to Japan, is the guest of the First Secretary of the Embassy and Mrs. Post Wheeler at Hot Springs, Va. Mr. Wheeler has just been commissioned as a colonel on the staff of the governor of Oregon.

The American Ambassador to Italy and Mrs. Lloyd Griscom, who have been spending their vacation in the Italian lake district, have arrived at St. Moritz, making the trip by way of the beautiful Maloja Pass. They have made the trip from Germany and through Switzerland in their hot touring car.

Miss Alleen Gorgas, daughter of Col. William C. Gorgas stationed in Panama in charge of the sanitation work, is now the guest of Miss Ortala Nesmith, daughter of Capt. Nesmith, of the Signal Corps, at Fort Omaha, where Capt. Nesmith is stationed. Miss Gorgas has been constantly entertained there for several weeks. Miss Nesmith last week gave a charming luncheon for her; Miss Mahoney entertained at a theater party for her; Capt. and Mrs. William A. Glassford gave a lawn party and dance in her honor, and Miss Louise Kennedy had a bowling party for her, all last week.

Mrs. Charles F. Humphrey, wife of Gen. Humphrey, U. S. A., is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. E. Humphrey, at Fort Porter, N. Y. Capt. and Mrs. Humphrey entertained at a handsome dinner in her honor last Wednesday.

Rear Admiral Hemphill, who went to Manila last summer, sailed from Manila for Hongkong last Monday on his return to the United States. He has been succeeded as commander of the Asiatic squadron by Capt. Giles B. Barber, formerly commander of the Maine.

Miss Rose Kearney has gone for a six weeks' trip to Boston.

Miss Louise Robinson has returned to her home in this city from an outing at the seashore.

Col. and Mrs. H. O. S. Helstead, the former stationed on Governors Island, N. Y., spent the past week-end as guests of friends in Pennington, N. J. They had their house guest, Miss Minnie Townsend, daughter of Gen. S. F. Townsend, with them. Col. and Mrs. Helstead, who have not been in Washington for some time, were prominent in society during the administration of President McKinley, and

LONG SEARCH FOR HER CHILD

Mother's Tireless Efforts at Last May Be Rewarded.

Stolen by Father Fourteen Years Ago, Boy Is Located in Found- ling Asylum.

New York, Aug. 5.—After a futile search of fourteen years, during which she has spent a fortune, Mrs. Anna Klugman today made the first real advance in the recovery of the child she says her husband stole from her when the boy was three weeks old.

Justice Greenbaum to-day signed a writ on Sister Teresa Vincent, of the New York Foundling Asylum. In her petition Mrs. Klugman says the boy was deposited in a crib at the asylum by his father. Mrs. Klugman says she is a woman of wealth and for fourteen years has spent large sums of money searching for her boy through the big cities of the United States. The first trace of the child she received several weeks ago, when by accident she met her former husband, Samuel Okstein.

Sister Teresa, through her counsel, says that the child was indentured at the age of three and a half years, and that she has lost the record in the case. Mrs. Klugman said she had remarried, that her husband is a man of wealth, and that she is especially desirous to get her child. She said the child had been bound out to one J. Blondin, but she had been unable to trace his abode.

SEAMAN LOST AT SEA.

Albert E. Heisel, ordinary seaman on the battleship Wisconsin, of the Atlantic fleet, whose home is at 3907 Michigan avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio, jumped overboard and was lost at sea on July 21. He had been melancholy since receiving bad news from home in the mail distribution in the fleet by the Minnesota, which remained behind at Honolulu two days to get the latest mail from home for the men of the fleet.

The suicide was reported by Admiral Sperry in a wireless message to the Bureau of Navigation. It appears that the fact that Heisel was suffering from melancholia was noted by his shipmates. He disappeared and after several days of search an investigation was ordered, the board finding from the evidence that he had probably jumped overboard.

MR. BAKER TELLS OF ACCIDENT

District Attorney Thought Auto Would Crush Party.

Will Never Forget Sensations as Machine Plunged Over Preci- pice in the Catskills.

In describing the accident in which he and his wife narrowly escaped being killed on Walnut Mountain, in the Catskills, near Liberty, N. Y., Tuesday morning, District Attorney D. W. Baker said yesterday:

"For a few moments after the automobile fell over the precipice and turned in the air I thought it was all over."

Mr. and Mrs. Baker upon their arrival here Tuesday night went immediately to their country home at Germantown, Md. Mr. Baker expects to resume his duties at the city hall this morning.

Speaking of the accident, Mr. Baker said: "Our party, composed of Miss Emily McNamara, Dr. S. E. Jelliffe, of New York; Mr. Baker, myself, had started out to climb Walnut Mountain in a big touring car, and we were on the descent of the road, and it was on the descent that the accident happened. Our chauffeur was cautiously driving his car when the front tires struck some stones, and in an instant the car went flying over the edge of the road, landing upside down in the tree tops."

Mr. Baker explained the work of assisting the occupants of the machine to the road, and added:

"It was a great relief when we found that no one was badly hurt. I shall never forget the sensation. We did not know whether we would be dashed to death or not."

Mrs. Baker and Miss McNamara, when seen yesterday, although they showed no ill effects of their thrilling experience, said they had been badly frightened.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"The Star Bout," with Taylor Granville in the leading role of Joe Brady, "The Gossin," will be the attraction at the New Academy commencing Monday, August 18. The play had an unusually successful run in the principal vaudeville houses of the country, and has a record of twenty-four weeks in New York City.

The success it met with induced Mr. Granville to elaborate the sketch, and he has evolved a four-act drama, which, it is claimed, will prove one of the largest and most ambitious dramatic productions ever given at popular prices.

The tour of Mr. Granville is under the direction of the J. L. Veroneo Management Company, which has surrounded its star with a large and competent class of players, including Miss Laura Pierpont in her original role of Myra Farrell, the tough girl. The play is handsomely staged with seven scenes which are decorated to be triumphs of the scene painter's art. Among them are the first act scene, showing the interior of the Continental Club, a swell New York gambling place; Mr. Brady's buffet and Joe Brady's training quarters on the Bowery; the exterior and entrance to the Olympian Boxing Club; Mr. Brady's tomb by moonlight, a section of Riverside Drive overlooking the Hudson River; Brady's apartments at the Savoy Hotel, and the now famous prize ring scene. This latter scene is the "big act" of the piece, and represents the arena of a big fight club, with its 2-foot prize ring. There are seconds, referees, announcer, bottle holders, timekeepers, members of the club and their guests, and by the ingenious use of a huge cyclorama and the employment of several hundred super-numeraries the effect is as though the arena was crowded with an audience of 8,000 or 10,000 people.

On Monday next, August 18, the "Kendrick Bellows" will reopen the New Lyceum Theater. The production is under the personal direction of J. Grant Gibson, who is responsible for the lyrics, book, and music. Jim Diamond is the leading comedian, and in the role of Gen. Boon is said to have a part that permits his well-known abilities as a fun-maker plenty of scope.

There are fifty people in the cast, thirty of which are shapely and stunningly gowned beauties, who compose the chorus. In the olio are J. Grant Gibson and Miss Adele Ramsey, O'Malley and her dancers, and vocalists; Dave and Percie Martin, in "Harvest Time"; Jim Diamond and his dancing girls; and the two Melrose Brothers in a novel and hazardous acrobatic act.

The National Theater closes Saturday night for six weeks, when the regular season will begin.

The Gayety Theater opens its season week after next.

Chase's polite vaudeville is due to open its season August 31.

Harrisonburg, Va., Aug. 5.—Rain interfered somewhat with the attendance to-day at the meeting of the eleventh annual Harrisonburg Horse Show, but by the time the races started in the afternoon there was quite a good attendance. Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 5.—Members of the German Baptist Brethren Church, of Maryland and adjoining States, held their annual reunion to-day at Pen Mar Park. Despite the threatening condition of the weather during the forenoon, there were several thousand persons in attendance. One special train from Hagerstown carried 500.

The address of the day was delivered by Rev. W. H. Benchler, of Myersdale, Pa., whose subject was "Two hundred years of progress." The exercises opened with Scripture reading by Rev. J. I. Hall, of St. James, Md. The opening prayer was said by Rev. W. D. Furry, Ph. D., of Baltimore. Rev. H. L. Gough, of Baltimore, read an original poem on the Church's Bicentennial. Dr. V. M. PYTHIANS IN GREAT PARADE

Knights Make Good Showing in Boston, Despite Rain.

Washington Companies Billed to Take Part in the Prize Drills to-day.

Special to The Washington Herald.
Boston, Mass., Aug. 5.—Despite the threatening showers the second parade of the Pythians was made a spectacular success to-day, and in this the Pythian sisters took a principal part.

Arranged in elaborate multicolored gowns on symbolic floats, they made a series of remarkable pictures. The storm, however, interfered with the starting of the prize drills, and the committee was obliged to hold them over until to-morrow.

Two Washington companies are entered, the First and Seventh District of Columbia, the former assigned to the thirty minutes beginning at 10:30 a. m., and the latter a similar period beginning at 11:30 a. m.

The drill prizes total $2,000, and the competition promises to be warm and continued. The field exercises include inspection, company movements, and sword manual. Each company must be composed of eighteen air knights and three officers.

In the appointment to the standing committee, announced today, T. A. Byrum, of Washington, is named for the committee on the military department.

The list of District of Columbia companies in yesterday's parade of the uniform rank received a mighty ovation, and compliments on their appearance and marching are heard to-day at Camp Lyon and elsewhere.

The Washington knights are enthusiastic baseball fans, and are attending the local games
